

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could be reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could be reasonably expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONSFREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT:

- (b)(1) applies to material which is properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (b)(2) applies to information which pertains solely to the internal rules and practices of the Agency;
- (b)(3) applies to the Director's statutory obligations to protect from disclosure intelligence sources and methods, as well as the organization, functions, names, official titles, salaries or numbers of personnel employed by the Agency, in accord with the National Security Act of 1947 and the CIA Act of 1949, respectively;
- (b)(4) applies to information such as trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person on a privileged or confidential basis;
- (b)(5) applies to inter- and intra-agency memoranda which are advisory in nature;
- (b)(6) applies to information release of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of other individuals; and
- (b)(7) applies to investigatory records, release of which could (C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of others, (D) disclose the identity of a confidential source, (E) disclose investigative techniques and procedures, or (F) endanger the life or physical safety of law enforcement personnel.

PRIVACY ACT:

- (b) applies to information concerning other individuals which may not be released without their written consent;
- (j)(1) applies to polygraph records; documents or segregable portions of documents, release of which would disclose intelligence sources and methods, including names of certain Agency employees and organizational components; and, documents or information provided by foreign governments;
- (k)(1) applies to information and material properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of national defense or foreign policy;
- (k)(5) applies to investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, or access to classified information, release of which would disclose a confidential source; and
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process.

Title: JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 08-21-2009 BY 60322 UCL/PLJ/JN

Character: WHITE HOUSE - SPECIAL INQUIRY

Synopsis: Informants, familiar with some phases of Un-American activity, Northern California area, advise no knowledge of Appointee. Dr. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN mentioned in "Daily People's World" 2/21/56 as having been invited to become Chairman of the Department of History at Brooklyn College. Appointee visiting professor, University of California, Berkeley, California, summer, 1956, and record contains no unfavorable information. [REDACTED] knows nothing of unfavorable nature concerning loyalty, character or associates. No record of a criminal nature and no credit record located.

- RUC -

DETAILS

Informants, familiar with some phases of Un-American activity, including Communist activity in the Northern California area advised that the Appointee is unknown to them and they have no information concerning him.

The "Daily People's World", in its issue dated February 21, 1956, on page 7, carried an article captioned "Negro to Head Brooklyn College History Department". The article stated that Dr. JOHN HOPE FRANKLIN, Professor of History at Howard University, has been invited to become a full professor and Chairman of the Department of History at Brooklyn College.

SF 161-450
JRH/efc

b7C

The article stated that Dr. FRANKLIN was picked from some twenty candidates for the office by a committee made up of members of the History Department. It further stated that Dr. FRANKLIN would be the first Negro in the State (New York) to Chair a Department.

The article stated that Dr. FRANKLIN, 41, is a graduate of Fisk and Harvard Universities and is the author of "From Slavery to Freedom", "The Freedom of Negroes in North Carolina" and several other histories. It stated that he has taught at Wisconsin, Cornell and Howard Universities and this summer will teach at University of California (1956).

The "Daily People's World", now known as the "People's World" is a West Coast Communist newspaper.

The following investigation was conducted by
IR [REDACTED]

AT BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

EMPLOYMENT

On January 15, 1962, [REDACTED] Clerk, Accounting Office, University of California, stated that her records show the Appointee was born January 2, 1915, at Rentlesville, Oklahoma, and had resided at 2011 Monroe Street, N.E., Washington D.C. She stated he was employed at the University of California as a professor in History from June 18, 1956, to July 28, 1956, and added that no local address was listed. No unfavorable information appeared in file.

POLICE RECORD

On January 15, 1962, Officer [REDACTED] University of California Police Department, advised that he had no record identifiable with the Appointee.

CREDIT AND POLICE RECORDS

On January 15, 1962, records at the Berkeley Police Department were searched and these records indicated that JOHN H. FRANKLIN, 1125 Euclid Avenue had reported on July 17, 1956, that he was locked out of his building and that the keys would not operate the lock. There was no record of arrest.

AT OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

On January 15, 1962, [redacted] Clerk, Credit Bureau of the Greater East Bay, Oakland, California, which includes the Berkeley area, stated that she had no record identifiable with the Appointee.

The following investigation was conducted by
SA [redacted]

AT BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

NEIGHBORHOOD

On January 16, 1962, [redacted]

[redacted] He stated that he recalled that the Appointee and wife and child had leased their home during the summer 1956, and had left their property in excellent condition. He stated that the Appointee is a person of another race but seemed to get along with the neighbors, all of whom are caucasian. He described the Appointee as a very cultured and pleasant person and a scholar. He stated that he was pleased when he learned that the Appointee had headed up the History Department at Brooklyn College. He stated that he knew nothing of an unfavorable nature concerning the Appointee's character, loyalty and associates. He added that he had received nothing in the mail following the Appointee's departure which might indicate the Appointee had subscribed to any literature or publications of a questionable nature.

EMPLOYMENT

On January 16, 1962, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] during the pertinent period and was not personally acquainted with the Appointee. He advised that due to the short period of employment he could not suggest anyone who might recall the Appointee. He added there are many visiting professors invited to the University of California to conduct summer courses.

NEWSPAPER LIBRARY FILES

On January 16, 1962, records in the Berkeley Daily Gazette Archives, 2048 Center Street, Berkeley, California, were searched and no record of Appointee was located. It should be noted the Berkeley Daily Gazette is a newspaper published daily with the exception of Sunday.
